

The individual whom you assigned the course license to will receive the following email. (The Username & Password will be tailored specifically for the individual you sign up). When they are ready to access the course they just :

The employee will then have to enter their username and password emailed to them on the home page, then select 'login':

They will then be directed to the following page, Select 'Please click here to continue':

They will then need to select 'Start Course', and the training will commence!

